

Learning Agreement
Engcmp 1903 Service-Learning in PPW Seminar

Return completed form to Tom McWhorter's mailbox in 501 CL by the end of week 3.

I. Student's Name _____ PeopleSoft # _____ Term _____

Total Credits Earned Toward Graduation _____ Major _____ QPA _____

Local Phone _____ E-mail _____

When is this service being completed? Fall Term year _____ Spring Term year _____

Student's Signature _____ Date _____

II. Organization Name _____

Department _____

Contact's Name and Title (Please Print) _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____ Fax _____ E-mail _____

Describe the responsibilities of the volunteer. The student has agreed to spend 3 hours/week on site.

Site Contact's Signature _____ Date _____

We will contact all sites at the end of the term to verify that the student has been volunteering for your organization.

III. Academic Component: Here are the requirements for the academic component of service learning seminar (worth one credit):

- volunteer at site at least 3 hours per week
- attend meetings with other students as required
- use good critical reading, thinking, and writing skills
- complete weekly blog assignments of approximately 750 words per week
- prepare a final presentation and a letter to incoming students
- complete a couple of short assignments (an interview-based story and a thank-you letter).

There is no exam for this seminar, and the grade for the credit is S/NC.

Service-Learning Coordinator, PPW Program _____ Tom McWhorter thmcw@pitt.edu

Complete this form and leave it in Tom McWhorter's CL 501 mailbox by the end of week 3.